Funeral Services Held For George A. Rapp, Friday

Masonic funeral services for George A. Rapp of Dickinson, N. D., who died last week of a heart ailment in the Bismarck hospital, were held Friday from the Paetznick Funeral Home.

Rev. H. W. Atkinson and Rev. L. C. Benson were in charge of the services.

Mrs. Herman Julson, soloist, sang, "Beyond the Sunset." Mrs. Chas. E. Adams accompanied on the piano.

Pall - bearers were: Irl Frommel, Fred Frommel, E. J. Julson, Herman Julson, Jack Johnson and C. A. Deitz. Burial was made in the family lot in Groton union cemetery.

Mr. Rapp was born in Dane county, Wisconsin and came to Brown county, South Dakota, in his early youth. The family made their home on a farm southwest of Groton.

In 1902 Mr. Rapp, his mother and sister, Elizabeth, moved to Dickinson, N. D., where he spent the remainder of his life.

He was a retired engineer of the Great Northern railroad and a member of the Dickinson, N. D., Masons, Elks and Brotherhood of Railroad Engineers.

Survivors include a brother, Frank Rapp of Groton and several nieces and nephews.
